

From the Desk of Dr. Rex Johnson, Senior Pastor, New Bethel Baptist Church, Georgia

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my honor to write this pastoral reference on behalf of Stephanie, a devoted member of New Bethel Baptist Church and a young woman whose faith, character, and perseverance have been evident since the day she walked through our doors.

I have had the privilege of serving as Stephanie's pastor and witnessing her spiritual growth firsthand. I was present the day she gave her life to Christ, and I remember clearly the sincerity and openness of her heart as she responded to God's call. Since that moment, she has continued to grow in her walk with the Lord, demonstrating a genuine desire to live out her faith in her daily life.

Stephanie is a single mother of four, and I have great respect for the strength and dedication she shows in raising her children. She approaches motherhood with patience, love, and a deep reliance on God. Despite the many responsibilities she carries, she remains committed to attending church, participating in worship, and seeking spiritual guidance. Her consistency and determination are a testimony to her character.

In addition to her responsibilities at home, Stephanie is pursuing a degree in Criminal Justice, and I fully support her educational and career goals. She has a heart for helping others and a strong sense of fairness and compassion — qualities that will serve her well in this field. I believe she will make a meaningful impact in her community and be a positive example of faith in action.

Stephanie is respectful, humble, and eager to grow. She is the kind of person who faces challenges with courage and leans on her faith rather than giving up. Her commitment to her spiritual life, her family, and her education speaks volumes about her integrity and determination.

I wholeheartedly recommend Stephanie for the Kerry Damiano/Oasis Scholarship. She deserves this opportunity, and I am confident she will continue to represent her faith and her community with excellence.

Sincerely, Dr. Johnson, Senior Pastor, Bethel Baptist Church
