

Pianist, Organist and Producer DEXTER Birk has begun to make his mark on the NYC jazz scene as performer and music director. Originally from Chicago, Dexter began his career participating in countless regional and national jazz ensembles, and is currently under the tutelage of Jeremy Manasia and John Benitez at the Manhattan School of Music. Having received a scholarship to study in NYC, Dexter is now performing and recording regularly with notable artists such as saxophonist Bernell Jones II and vocalists Nali, Jordan Curls, Rapper Kaicrewsade and more. Most recently Dexter was a featured solo performer at the Millennium Park Stage for the Chicago Jazz Festival in a tribute to legends of jazz that passed away in 2023. Other performers sharing the stage were Kenny Garrett, Billy Hart and Kris Davis. DEXTER is set to release his debut single "Moonbeams", a project featuring Sarahfina Osei on vocals this year.
