To whom it may concern,

My name is Brian DeBlois and I have had the privilege of becoming acquainted with Emma Hessenaur for many years. I currently have the honor of being her Youth Pastor at The Potters House Christian Center in Prescott AZ. I have observed Emma's character on a consistent basis. Between church services, outreach to the community and our weekly Sunday school class. Emma has shown her true qualities. When there is clean up or work to be done, Emma is right there asking what she can do to help. Whether that is trash, bathroom pickup, or vacuuming, she is quick to serve. Especially whenever there is a social gathering she will serve refreshments to all who attend. I have also noticed in the class setting, she is very confident to lift her hand and ask more questions on various topics. In addition she also has the ability to help answer others' questions that may arise in our Q and A sessions.

The greatest attribute of Emma is her deep care for others. She is always looking for the ones who are left out or are missed. This trait has made Emma shine over many others, due to her awareness. The world would be a better place if more of us were like Emma. The potential that is in this young woman will be more and more prevalent as she is given more opportunity. I highly recommend Emma. For she is a wonderful person and a loyal friend. For any other questions please do not hesitate to use my contact information above.

Sincerely,
