

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Jamya Jones, a remarkable young woman whom I have had the privilege of knowing and mentoring for over eight years through our church community.

During this time, I have worked closely with Jamya through our PEARLS mentoring program, where she has consistently demonstrated growth and excellence in areas such as etiquette, service, leadership, and personal development. Jamya has always carried herself with grace, maturity, and a strong sense of responsibility well beyond her years.

Jamya is deeply committed to serving others. She regularly volunteers within our church, assisting with younger children, supporting various church programs, and helping new members feel welcomed and connected. Her willingness to serve wherever needed reflects both her character and her genuine care for others.

Since beginning her college journey, Jamya has continued to excel academically and socially. She is a proud member of the Alpha Lambda Delta Honors Society and actively participates in the History and Political Science Club. These accomplishments speak to her dedication, intellectual curiosity, and drive to succeed.

Jamya Jones is a dependable, compassionate, and motivated individual who will be an asset to any organization or opportunity she pursues. I wholeheartedly recommend her without reservation.

If you require any additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
Jasmine Johns
