

To Whom It May Concern,

I am honored to write this letter of recommendation for Leo in support of his scholarship application. Over the past year, I have had the privilege of getting to know him and seeing more clearly the kind of young man that he is. In that time, I have come to love watching his heart for the Lord, his love for people, and his sincere desire to serve God well.

What stands out most about Leo is the authenticity of his faith. His desire to serve the Lord is not just something he says, but something that is already evident in the way he is living. Even now, he is actively engaged in ministry work at his school and is leading a small group of young men there. That alone speaks to both his character and his willingness to step up and be used by God where he is planted.

Leo carries a real fire and passion to see lives changed. He has a heart and hunger for people that is rare, and it is clear that he genuinely wants others to encounter Jesus and walk in the fullness of what God has for them. He is also one of the greatest encouragers I have met. He has a way of lifting others up, speaking life into them, and helping point them toward truth, which makes him a powerful influence in the lives of those around him.

I believe this scholarship would be an investment in a young man who is already bearing fruit and who will only continue to grow in his ability to lead and impact others for the Kingdom of God. Leo is not simply pursuing education for himself, but as part of a larger calling to serve people and advance the work of Jesus wherever God leads him.

For these reasons, I wholeheartedly recommend Leo for this scholarship. I am confident he will steward this opportunity with faithfulness, gratitude, and a continued passion to make Christ known.

Sincerely,

Luke Detraz
