Kerry Damiano College Scholarship Fund

It is my honor to wholeheartedly recommend Danielle Detraz for the Kerry Damiano College Scholarship Fund. As a pastor, I have had the privilege of observing Danielle's life, character, and faith up close, and I can confidently say she represents the kind of integrity, diligence, and heart that this scholarship is designed to support.

Danielle's life is marked by consistency and quiet strength. She has a genuine willingness to grow, serve, and invest in others. Danielle has demonstrated a clear sense of purpose and a grounded identity. She carries herself with humility in working towards her master's degree to which will benefit the service of others.

What stands out most about Danielle is her character. She is dependable, respectful, and sincere. She treats people with kindness and carries a spirit that builds others up. Whether in church, relationships, or personal responsibility, she approaches life with a Godly heart to serve others.

I strongly recommend Danielle Detraz for this scholarship without hesitation. She is deserving of this investment, and I am confident it will be multiplied through the life she continues to build.

If you have any questions or need further insight, I would be glad to provide it.

Sincerely,
Andrew Milich
