

Dear Officer

It's a privilege to recommend Claudia Luo for seminary studies. She's an active part of our church family at Spirit Church and serves faithfully on our Dream Team within Growth Track—our two-step process that helps people discover their purpose, identify their gifts, and get connected to the life of our church.

Claudia is consistent, joyful, and always willing to jump in wherever she's needed. She has a genuine heart for people and a growing passion for ministry. You can see it in how she serves—whether leading tours, setting up, or helping others take their next step. She's dependable, humble, and carries herself with a quiet confidence that draws people in.

She's also serving with Bridges International at ASU, sharing the gospel with international students and building real relationships across cultures. Claudia has a clear sense of calling to reach those who haven't yet heard the good news—especially in places where access to the Bible is limited. I believe her seminary training will further equip her to walk out that calling with wisdom, strength, and grace.

I'm honored to recommend her without hesitation. She has my full support and my confidence in her character, calling, and readiness for ministry.

With honor,

Brad Straarup
