

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing this letter of recommendation for Morgan Horrell. I have had the pleasure to watch Morgan grow as a young woman during her time as an undergraduate student-athlete at Howard University.

Morgan has been member of the Howard University Women's Golf since her initial enrollment at Howard. Morgan's work ethic and love of her sport earned her a scholarship after being recruited to play at Howard out of high school. She was one of our top student-athletes, proving you can participate in athletics while also exceling academically. Morgan is extremely intelligent, diligent, and dedicated to her goal of becoming a global change agent. Along with intelligence, Morgan has become a proven leader, recognized by her coaching staff when she was named a starter and eventual All-Conference player during her sophomore year this past spring 2024 season.

As a business major here at Howard University, Morgan has stated on many occasions that she would love to work in the golf profession. Over many discussions with Morgan, I see her running her own club or become an executive within the LPGA! She is dedicated to moving forward in everything she does, she wants to be a champion in golf, a champion in the classroom and a champion within her community.

Morgan is an exceptional individual who embodies the values of integrity, excellence, and leadership. I have no doubt that she will continue to achieve great success in all her future endeavors. It is with utmost confidence that I recommend her for any opportunity she may seek.

Sincerely,
