Dear University Admissions Committee,

It gives me great pleasure to recommend one of my students, Andre Beckwith, for admission to your highly selective university. I have known Andre throughout all of his high school years, as he was a student in both my English 9 and Spanish 10 classes and now is in my Advanced Placement English Literature and Composition class.

For as long as I have known him, Andre has always prided himself on leading by example and influencing those around him for good. His attitude has always been one of excellence, always striving to do his best and being willing to help others. Throughout his high school years, Andre has participated in the highly disciplined sport of boxing, in which he competes nationally and has won many awards. This rigorous training and discipline consistently spill over into the classroom where Andre daily exhibits his focus, ambition, and commitment to achieving excellence. In demonstration of his scholarship, as an underclassman Andre maintained a 99% (A+) average in my Spanish II class all year long. He currently maintains a 100 (A+) in a demanding Advanced Placement English Literature and Composition class, as well as being a dual-enrollment student at Prince George's Community College.

Neither satisfied with the status quo nor one to rest on his laurels, Andre's academic pursuits are topped by a passion for cybersecurity, robotics, and athletics, as well as diverse experiences in leadership and service to his school and community at large. His resume is extensive; he was a junior olympic champion, freshman track team captain, honor society inductee, junior and now senior class president, and still serves as a mentor for underprivileged youth. His current GPA is 4.15 on a 4.0 scale, and he is ranked fourth in his highly capable and fiercely competitive class of forty.

Andre Beckwith is a high-achieving student of excellent character and integrity and a leader in several areas of endeavor. I most highly recommend him for admission to your university.

Sincerely,

Joyce A. Rivers
