

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to offer my strong recommendation for my daughter, Sawyer Davis, as a candidate for this scholarship. As her father, I have had the opportunity to watch her grow into a hardworking, responsible, and compassionate young woman, and I believe she would be an excellent recipient of this award.

For the past ten years, I have been undergoing treatment for cancer, and throughout that time, Sawyer has shown maturity, strength, and determination well beyond her years. Despite the challenges our family has faced, she has remained focused on her goals and committed to doing her best in everything she pursues. She understands the value of hard work and responsibility, and she consistently applies those values in her daily life.

Sawyer has an outstanding work ethic and takes her education seriously. She is a dedicated student who works hard at school and consistently earns strong grades. She manages her academic responsibilities with discipline and motivation, always striving to improve and challenge herself. Her commitment to learning is something I admire greatly as both a parent and a supporter of her future goals.

In addition to her academic efforts, Sawyer is actively involved in her church youth group, where she demonstrates kindness, leadership, and a willingness to serve others. She values community and understands the importance of contributing her time and energy in positive ways. These experiences have helped shape her strong character and sense of responsibility.

Sawyer is also a leader in several extracurricular activities, including cheerleading, art, dance, and drama at school. Through these programs, she has developed confidence, teamwork skills, and leadership abilities. She leads by example, encourages others, and brings a positive attitude to everything she does. Her ability to balance academics, extracurricular involvement, and personal responsibilities speaks to her strong time-management skills and dedication.

I am incredibly proud of the person Sawyer has become and confident in her ability to succeed in higher education and beyond. She approaches challenges with determination and integrity, and she consistently demonstrates qualities that make her deserving of this scholarship. I give Sawyer my highest recommendation and appreciate your consideration of her application.

Sincerely,
Berkley Davis
