

June 6, 2025

To Whom It May Concern,

I am honored to write this letter in enthusiastic support of Valentina Gordon Bermeo. I had the pleasure of teaching Valentina in my ESL class last year, and I can confidently say that she is one of the most driven, hardworking, and resilient students I have encountered in my teaching career. Valentina is an exceptional student whose dedication, intellect, and character set her apart in an academic environment.

Valentina joined our school just last year, facing the considerable challenge of adapting to a new country, culture, and language. Remarkably, she exited the ESL program in a single academic year—an achievement that reflects her determination, intellectual strength, and extraordinary work ethic. She approached language learning with focus and maturity, consistently going above and beyond classroom expectations.

She approaches her studies with curiosity and diligence, consistently producing work of outstanding quality. Despite the initial language barrier, Valentina quickly rose to meet high academic standards across all of her courses. She not only succeeded in her studies but also excelled—earning multiple academic awards and recognition from faculty. Her dedication to learning is matched by her involvement in extracurricular activities, where she continues to grow as a well-rounded and engaged member of the school community.

Valentina is a bright, motivated, and driven individual with unlimited potential. She exemplifies perseverance, academic excellence, and a sincere desire to make the most of every opportunity presented to her. I have no doubt that she will continue to achieve great things and contribute meaningfully to any academic environment she joins. I give her my highest recommendation without reservation.

Please feel free to contact me if you need any additional information.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "A. Wyckoff", with a stylized, cursive script.

Mrs. Amy J. Wyckoff

ESL teacher

Phillipsburg High School

wyckoff.amy@pburgsd.net

908-454-3400